CompuBrain Certified Network

CompuBrain Certified Network | Hardware Vendor Software | Accounting Program

The trusted name in certificate for data and network security, made available in requirement specific packages that would help you utilize a well established, secured and a maintenance free IT system.

CompuBrainTM Certified Network incorporates complete and high end Email &Data security and solutions along with enhanced network security and accessibility options to protect the important, critical, valuable and private information stored and used by the organizations for their operations. This is facilitated by Virus Protection, Spam protection, Malware protection protocols employed.

It employs operating systems and application specific IT infrastructure that range from initialisation of certain processes of the system, necessary of specific and limited use of the systems' users, to limiting and/or no provisions of facilities that will enable external storage or specific devices to be used. This will also lead to optimum usage of hardware, software and drivers by enhancing their performance.

Ask us about CompuBrainTM Certified Network which will not only serve the purpose optimum usage of organizations' IT resources but will also, through its special and secure features, prevent the ill and misuse of valuable and critical IT Infrastructure.